16 December 2024

Ref 2024/25-089

Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 16 December 2024, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002:

"1) Please could you detail what, if any, training is given to police officers as to the regulations around the use of single (long) seat agricultural quad bikes on the road?

2) Please could you tell me how many agricultural quad bikes have been stopped for being on the road illegally in the past 12 months?

I am especially interested in the illegal usage of agricultural quad bikes on the road by hunt support (out of area, carrying passengers, no number plate etc.) and if you could split those figures out I would be very grateful".

Response

The Scottish Police Authority has considered your request and can confirm that the Authority does not hold the information requested.¹

The Authority provides governance and oversight of policing in Scotland and does not hold information on operational policing matters.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland at foi@scotland.police.uk and referring to Police Scotland's Disclosure Log.

¹ This represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@foi.scot or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

This response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.

Yours faithfully
