Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 6 January, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

Can you please confirm if the police will fine/charge people who exceed 20mph on roads with 20mph limit signs in a red circle, or will the police only fine/charge people who exceed 30mph on roads where the signs indicate the limit is 20mph.

Can you please advise how many fines/charges/warnings that the Police have made to drivers who have exceeded 20mph but at a speed of 30mph or less?

Can you also please confirm what communication Police Scotland have made with local authorities with respect to what enforcement Police Scotland will apply to roads with 20mph limits?

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information requested.¹

¹ This represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.
