Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 13 December, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002:

I am concerned about a recent attack on a woman in the woods walking her dog in Lanarkshire. I would like to know the number of attacks on women out walking in north and south Lanarkshire from 2015 to date

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority is able to provide the following.

The Authority does not hold the information you have requested. Therefore, this represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

The Scottish Police Authority provides governance and oversight of policing in Scotland and does not hold information on operational policing matters including recorded crime statistics.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland. Information on how to make a request to Police Scotland is available at –

Freedom of Information - Police Scotland

Also of interest may be official statistics published by the Scottish Government on crimes and offences recorded by the police in Scotland. Statistics on crimes and offences recorded and cleared up by the police, split by crime or offence group and by local authority are available at - Recorded crime in Scotland - gov.scot \(www.gov.scot\)

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been dealt with you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by post to Corporate Management Team, Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision.

You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by post to Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.

As part of our commitment to demonstrate openness and transparency in respect of the information we hold, an anonymised version of this response will be posted to the Scottish Police Authority Freedom of Information Disclosure Log in seven days' time.
