Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 5 September, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002:

Could you please provide details of Procurement Frameworks, Dynamic Procurement Systems, and Portals used by you in the advertising, administering and/or awarding of contracts?

This should include all those provided by public sector, private sector, and any other third-party organisations.

To limit this to manageable levels, please restrict your response to those with CPV codes in the following categories and their corresponding sub-categories:

- 39 Furniture (incl. office furniture), furnishings, domestic appliances (excl. lighting) and cleaning products
- 44 Construction structures and materials; auxiliary products to construction (excepts electric apparatus)
- 45 Construction work
- 50 Repair and maintenance services
- 51 Installation services (except software)
- 71 Architectural, construction, engineering, and inspection services

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information you have requested. Therefore, this represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

Although the Scottish Police Authority is the named Contracting Authority for all Authority and Police Scotland procurement, the procurement function to put in place such contracts is performed by Police Scotland.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland. Detail on how to make a request is available on their website.

Also of interest may be the regulated contract register which is publicly available on Public Contract Scotland. This provides details of live regulated contracts over the value of £50,000.

Procurement reporting, prepared by Police Scotland on behalf of the Authority, is also publicly available.

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

After review, if you remain dissatisfied, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

An anonymised version of this response will be posted to our Disclosure Log in seven days' time.
