Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 26 September, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002:

“Thank you very much for your detailed response to our previous letter.

We note that Police Scotland has undertaken and continue to update the island impact assessment. Under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act (FOISA), please could you share the island impact assessment with us so that we are able to understand Police Scotland views of the impact.”

Response

The Scottish Police Authority has considered your request and can confirm that the Authority does not hold the information requested.¹

Any impact assessments relating to Police Scotland’s Housing Strategy and associated occupancy charge would be undertaken by Police Scotland. Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland at foi@scotland.police.uk

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

¹ This represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@foi.scot or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

This response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.

Yours faithfully
