Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 3 October 2024, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

“Please can I request information on the remuneration paid to your Board members, including any and all expenses, for the past 3- years.

Please set this out in a format so that the payments are clear for each board member.”

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority is able to confirm that the information requested can reasonably be obtained.¹

Members remuneration and expenses are published quarterly on the Authority’s website. For ease of reference, please see the direct links below to this information:

Remuneration of Board Members is also reported in the Authority's Annual Report and Accounts, see the Remuneration Report in Part 2. Please note we anticipate the Annual Report and Accounts for 2023/24 to be laid in Parliament and published by 31 December 2024.

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@foi.scot or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

This response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.

Yours faithfully
