Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 8 January, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

I am writing to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act for information regarding the number of items stolen, or reports of items stolen, from police vehicles and stations in Renfrewshire.

Specifically, I would like the following information from January 1, 2020 - January 1, 2024, please,

- The number of items reported to be stolen from a police vehicle?
- The number of items reported to be stolen from a police station?
- What items have been reportedly stolen from police stations and vehicles?
- What were the costs of the items that needed to be replaced?

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information requested.¹

The Scottish Police Authority provides governance and oversight of policing in Scotland and does not hold information on operational policing matters.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland at foi@scotland.police.uk

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome, you can ask us to review our response. If you want us to carry out a review, please let us know within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

An anonymised version of this response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.
