Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 6 July, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002:

I am seeking information regarding road traffic accidents where the police have been contacted and involved over the last 15 years i.e January 2008 to the present day.

The area I am interested in is the stretch of road which is Eastfield on the Northside and Seaview Terrace on the Southside.

Stretching from no. 1 Eastfield to the junction with Milton Road East.

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information you have requested. Therefore, this represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

The Scottish Police Authority provides governance and oversight of policing in Scotland and does not hold information on operational policing matters.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland. Detail on how to make a request is available on their website – Freedom of Information - Police Scotland

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

After review, if you remain dissatisfied, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

An anonymised version of this response will be posted to our Disclosure Log in seven days' time.
