Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 31 May, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002:

Your request has not been repeated here in full as it includes personal data.

I'd like to raise a FOI request in relation to the Tupe transfer that took place 30th November 2012.

I require documentation to show this took place under the Tupe regulations of 2006.

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information you have requested. Therefore, this represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

Although the Authority is the legal employer of police staff in Scotland, the People and Development function is performed by Police Scotland.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland. Detail on how to make a request is available at – Freedom of Information - Police Scotland

Your request may be considered a Subject Access Request under GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018. Police Scotland will confirm to you under which legislation your request has been considered.

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been dealt with you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by post to Corporate Management Team, Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision.

You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by post to Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.

As part of our commitment to demonstrate openness and transparency in respect of the information we hold, an anonymised version of this response will be posted to the Scottish Police Authority Freedom of Information Disclosure Log in seven days' time.
