Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 5th May 2023 in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002:

I wish to make a freedom of information request. The information I am requesting pertains to the car parks which are attached to buildings owned/managed by the SPA, specifically Police Stations.

I wish to know if these car parks are classed as public or private, are there any parking restrictions in place, if so how are drivers made aware of these restrictions and in what way(s) are they enforced, FPN, PCN etc. Also I would like information on how many enforcements have been made in the last year.

Response

Your request for information has been considered and the Scottish Police Authority (SPA) is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information you have requested. Therefore, this represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland. Information on how to make a request to Police Scotland is available at –

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been dealt with you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by post to Corporate Management Team, Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision.

You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by post to Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.

As part of our commitment to demonstrate openness and transparency in respect of the information we hold, an anonymised version of this response will be posted to the Scottish Police Authority Freedom of Information Disclosure Log in seven days' time.
