FOI Ref 2024/25-086

Request

Your request for information dated 9 December 2024 is copied below.

"Can you confirm whether there was any knife of the brand Jack Pyke (a scunting/fishing style knife) in the productions list given to forensics services in 2003/4 or even 2005 in relation to the case of Jodi Jones?"

Response

The Scottish Police Authority has considered your request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act (FOISA).

Following a detailed search we can advise that information held confirms that a knife, aligning with the description in your request, was a production received by SPA Forensic Services.

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@foi.scot or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

This response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.

Yours faithfully

Scottish Police Authority
