Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 19/09/24, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

“I am writing for a freedom of information request in relation to a road traffic incident in which I was a victim.

I am seeking to be provided with a transcript of the events and all communications which formed the action taken on Friday 13th September 2024 in Inverness as part of the vehicle pursuit and subsequent road traffic collision involving 3 vehicles. The police incident reference number I have been provided is [PS incident number]. I am looking for any information of vehicles involved, officers involved and all communication prior to the pursuit commencing, during the pursuit and post collision.”

Response

The Scottish Police Authority has considered your request and is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information requested.¹

The Authority provides governance and oversight of policing in Scotland and does not hold information on operational policing matters.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland at foi@scotland.police.uk

¹ This represents a notice in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information not held.

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@foi.scot or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

This response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.

Yours faithfully
